Acting Naughty; Book 1

Keith O'Leary has been trying to break into acting for ages. When a part in the newest cable television drama, Forever Young, is offered, Keith struggles with the idea of playing a gay man. Adam Lewis, his agent, persuades Keith to accept the role, knowing it's a chance to star in the biggest new hit on TV. Keith reluctantly agrees, dreading working in a diner like his roommate/girlfriend, Patty, to make the rent money. When Keith meets his fabulous co-star, Carl Bronson, his anxiety is piqued. He has to kiss this man on camera, and much more.

Luckily for Keith, Carl is warm, understanding and willing to coach Keith during some nerve-wracking scenes. Soon the episodes sizzle with their erotic contact and declarations of love.

For Keith those words are beginning to feel like the truth as he grows to love the man he is kissing and touching in very passionate ways. And going through the same exact experience, Carl feels the same way.

As their romance blossoms on and off camera, someone threatens to expose them as real lovers, putting a shadow of doubt on their future in the business. Will they follow the advice of Adam Lewis, and deny, deny, deny, their true feelings to the tabloids? Or take the chance and expose themselves and their love and possibly risk their careers? In part one of two, Carl and Keith learn there's more to a relationship, than acting.

Keith O'Leary and Carl Bronson thought they had it made. Having landed roles in a top racy television cable drama, Forever Young, both handsome aspiring actors began to believe their dreams of becoming celebrities had come true. While playing a gay couple in the show, Keith and Carl form a genuine attraction to each other, which grows into a loving, trusting relationship. The only problem is, Adam Lewis, Keith's gay agent, warns them about being seen as a couple in public, and the repercussions down the line after their top rated show, Forever Young ends. Both men struggle to keep their private lives discreet, while someone on the inside is trying desperately to out them to boost the show's ratings.

Agonizing over having to pretend they are straight for any possibility of a leading man part in a motion picture, both men have to come to a decision as to what they value most. Their love or their careers. This sequel to Actors shows just how bad the Hollywood hypocrisy could be when it comes to gay men coming out of the closet. It appears that playing dirty, is the only choice they have.

Getting it in the End; Book 3

You know him. You've seen him attempt to marry Sharon Tice in Mark and Sharon, be swept off his feet by the ex-LAPD cop, Steve Miller in Capital Games, begging forgiveness from his best friend Jack Larsen in When Adam Met Jack, seduced by two young handsome television stars in Playing Dirty, but who is Mark Antonious Richfield? In Los Angeles, California where everyone is a ten, Mark is an eleven. Too gorgeous for everyone's good, Mark is terribly flawed, and knows it. Beating himself up constantly for making bad decisions, Mark tries to please everyone to their peril.

But what on earth is going on with Mark now? Still working at Parsons and Company with his loyal lover, Steve, Mark begins modeling on the side. At one of his sessions he meets an old friend who stirs up some forbidden passion. And as usual, Mark Richfield is in the middle of a quagmire without the social skills to make a good decision. Other than his fantastic sex appeal, Mark has one other problem. He loves too much, has too much heart, and craves to be loved in return like he breathes air. Desperately.

Find out Mark's side of the story, and fly with him as he falters through his life, trying, pleading, and usually not succeeding. Mark Richfield. Love him or hate him, he is a fascinating study in human nature.

Behaving Badly; Book 4

For once, Mark Antonious Richfield thought everything was going well in his life. His full time job at Parsons and Company was fulfilling and his side career of modeling for a cologne ad was enjoyable. He and the love of his life, ex-LAPD officer, Steve Miller, as well as their best friends Jack Larsen and Adam Lewis, seemed to be getting along perfectly. What could possibly go wrong?

When a young eighteen year old man appears at their door, their whole world turns on its head. Though Mark at first couldn't see anything unusual about the teenager, the minute Steve set eyes on Alexander Lehman, he knew he was a Richfield clone. Mark had an illegitimate son, one as sensual, gorgeous, and mischievous as himself.

As Steve and Jack struggle to come to terms with the younger version of the hot model they fell madly in love with, Alexander becomes infatuated with the handsome cop, making life unbearably complicated and miserable for Mark.

With the new addition to their household, Mark and Steve take a crash course in the lessons of fatherhood, all of them learning right from wrong the hard way.

Can the young sexy 'Mark junior' manage to control his voracious appetite for older men? Or will Mark and Steve's relationship collapse with the struggle for power between sons and lovers? Follow the tale of Generation sex as the youth begin to take over for their fathers.

Dripping Hot; Book 5

With the Christmas party approaching, Mark Richfield is trying to cope with the pressure of the holidays, his out of control son, Alex, and too many men involved in his life to keep his sanity intact. It seems the popular idea at Parsons and Company is to have Mark play Santa Claus at the office gala. His latest ad for cologne has all of LA buzzing as his image hit all the billboards on Santa Monica Boulevard and the Sunset Strip; a half naked sexpot, Mark Antonious is exposed to entice the masses, not to mention the gay men in his office.

Trying to come to terms with Alexander becoming independent and keeping the attraction between Steve and Alex under careful scrutiny, Mark, as usual, comes apart at the seams.

When Alex goes missing during an event of the battle of the bands where Alex's lover, Oliver Loveday, and his musical group are playing near the Rose Bowl stadium, Mark nearly has a nervous breakdown until a group of heroes comes to his aid.

The lifeguards from Man to Man, the firemen from Two in Two out, LAPD's finest officers from Top Men and Sergeant Billy Sharpe, and his partner Angel Loveday, and even the stars of Forever Young, Keith O'Leary and Carl Bronson, are on the scene to find the missing teenager.

Meanwhile Steve is fighting his own internal battles as his father and mother become aware that he has married a man and has a son. The fact that they know about Mark and Alex terrifies Steve as he hopes his homophobic father will not harm the ones he loves.

It all occurs during the week prior to Christmas when one's faith and hope are tested, only to be redeemed by the greatest gift; the loyal friends you have made.

Packing Heat; Book 6

Mark Antonious Richfield has become a name synonymous with both beauty and chaos. Though Mark has accomplished much in his life, despite a rocky start from an abusive childhood and living in denial about his sexuality, he has come only so far. Mark is forever conflicted with his advancing years stealing his beauty away.

Though he perceives himself as shallow and useless, Mark's circle of lovers know otherwise. Steve Miller, the ex-LAPD cop, and forever guardian angel to Mark, Jack Larsen, Mark's long-time and closest friend, and Adam Lewis, Jack's husband, all stand firm to protect Mark from his own demons.

And though Mark's son Alexander is not a bad boy, he's a very naughty boy. Mark thought his problems with Alexander were finished when Alex met Angel Loveday's son, Oliver. But perhaps Mark wishing his nineteen-year-old son was in a relationship that would last a lifetime was a bit premature.

As Mark's internal war rages on, he once again learns that age does indeed come before beauty, and his friends are the best weapon he has against his own wounded self-esteem.

Being Screwed; Book 7

In Book 7 of the Action! Series the tale comes full circle, back to the first novel, Acting Naughty and the dilemma of the lead characters Keith O'Leary and Carl Bronson on whether it is prudent for an up and coming actor to expose their sexuality to the public.

Mark Antonious Richfield is turning the dreaded 4-0 and is going out of his mind, as usual, hitting a milestone he assumed he'd never admit to hitting.

Steven Jay Miller, the ex-LAPD cop, is doing all he can to get Mark and Alex through their personal crisis, but other than being supportive, Steve can't do a thing to prevent the life-changing decisions both Mark and Alex are destined to make.

Having to prove he is still young and vital, Mark reunites with the mega-stars of Forever Young, Keith and Carl, in a television episode that becomes unforgettable as Mark and the two celebrities get naughty again, much to the producers' and director's delight.

Alexander Mark Lehman-Richfield is twenty-one, in college and still seeing Oliver Loveday loyally. To everyone's astonishment (and fear), Alex gets his big break in Hollywood as the number one star of his own racy cable TV drama, Being Screwed. And though Adam Lewis, Alex's agent and close friend begs Alex to deny his sexual preference in public, like he had done with Keith and Carl, Alexander is too outspoken to even consider hiding in the closet. But is the world ready? Or is being an 'out' gay actor in Hollywood still a deterrent for men to get leading roles in blockbuster movies?

Revisit with all your favorite men, Jack Larson, Adam Lewis, the cops from Top Men, Mickey and Jeff, as well as many others you have grown to know and love from Hauser's Erotic Universe.

And learn how Being Screwed, is not necessarily a bad thing...

Something Sexy; Book 8

Having hit the milestone of 40 years old, Mark Antonious Richfield seems to have survived. But on a trip to London to join his mother, Leslie and step-father Harry for the wedding of Harry's son, Luke, Mark decides perhaps this is a good time to 'reinvent' himself.

Ex- LAPD cop, Steve Miller, Mark's husband, and truest love, embark on a journey to London to let down their hair and go wild. Or at least that's Mark's idea of a good time.

During a session at a fetish club one evening, Mark's beauty captivates the editor of an erotic gay men's magazine. Adrian McKenzie asks Mark to do a centerfold for his latest edition.

Assuming this will be anonymous and thrilling, Mark agrees to his own peril.

Meanwhile, Alexander, Mark's incorrigible son, makes his own bad decisions while trying to cope with school and a new career. Though Alex is continuing his acting role in Being Screwed, the racy nighttime cable drama, his behavior is increasingly unstable during the time his father is away.

Both father and son, though they try their best to do what's right, end up complicating their lives eternally.

But one thing is never in doubt. When it comes to Mark Antonious Richfield, his Action! will be Something Sexy. Very sexy indeed!

Going Wild; Book 9

In this latest G.A. Hauser Action! novel find out how Mark and the gang are truly 'Going Wild' with all of your favorite men finding love in all the wrong places!

After their forbidden affair, twenty-two-year-old Alexander Richfield and the forty-two-year-old LAPD SWAT lieutenant, Billy Sharpe, can't seem to keep away from each other. Billy's love and attention towards the rising Hollywood star give Alexander just what he craves.

Attorney extraordinaire Jack Larsen introduces his husbands, Adam Lewis, Mark Richfield and Steve Miller to his new law associate, the professional Dom Colt St. John. Mark's newfound love of all things leather and latex brings the men to Colt's penthouse loft for a BDSM session they will never forget.

Meanwhile Adam Lewis struggles to find work for award winning actors Keith O'Leary and Carl Bronson on the heels of the news that their top-rated cable drama Forever Young has been canceled; a victim of the rising intolerance in society for gay men. In the beginning of Keith and Carl's stint of the racy drama, Adam begged them to deny they were a gay couple and keep their sexuality a secret. With the pressure from the tabloids and their producers to come out, Keith and Carl succumbed to the exposure and admitted publicly they were gay. Now the test will come if their decision costs them their careers.

Will the affair between Billy Sharpe and Alex Richfield be nothing more than a sexual fling? And will Adam be able to battle against the growing tide of homophobia in the media?

In Book 9 of the best-selling Action! Series, we see each of your favorite men Going Wild in their search to achieve happiness and true love.

Having it All!; Book 10

In a town where having it all is what everyone strives for, Mark Richfield and his son Alex, already seem to be living the highlife in LA. But are they?

Jack Larsen, Mark's closest friend begins to fantasize having Mark play Dom instead of his absolute submissive behavior. This dream becomes an obsession for Jack as he tries to lure Mark into a one-on-one evening.

SWAT Lt. Billy Sharpe is adjusting to life as Alex-The-Superstar's sugar daddy and bodyguard, dealing with constant tabloid gossip, paparazzi and life post-Angel Loveday, his partner, who has since moved onto another relationship.

In the bizarre crossroads where the Hollywood elite intersects Gay men, life is never easy, nor simple.

Come join Mark and all your Action! Series favorites as they learn Having it All is really about finding trust, hope, and true love.

Bending the Rules; Book 11

Top model Mark Antonious Richfield didn't want to let go of his family estate in Paradise, CA. Though his childhood home brought both good and bad memories, Mark struggled with a decision on selling it. On a visit to the mansion with his husband, Steve Miller and their closest friends, Jack Larsen and Adam Lewis, Mark begins to recall memories about his father he had repressed for decades. Dark, painful recollections that overwhelmed him.

His son Alexander Richfield, and his fiancée SWAT Lt Billy Sharpe of the LAPD adjust to their new home in Bel Air as well as trying to plan a wedding in New York, which is constantly put on hold because of their busy schedules.

When a sexy androgynous newcomer Tadzio Andresen is cast as Alex's love interest on the hit vampire series, Being Screwed, Alex and Billy's love and trust is put to the test.

In Book 11 of the Action! Series, delve into the darkness of Mark's early years, and his son's determination to withstand the forces that try to tear him and Billy apart.

Sometimes you don't have to break the rules to survive- when just Bending the Rules is enough to give you a boost in the right direction.

Keeping it Up; Book 12

Top Model Mark Antonious Richfield made the decision to sell the mansion, in Paradise, CA where he grew up as a young boy. His prim-proper English mother had remarried and moved on to live in London, and Mark's homophobic abusive father, Milt Richfield was dead. In order to send off the estate with a defiant 'bang!' -literally- Mark invites all his good friends for a proper boy's weekend. As your Action! Series favorites get together for a final fling, find out how they mix emotional closure with pure pleasure, and of course, Mark is the main course. But not before Mark is forced into shooting a controversial modeling session with his newest account, a luxury car company, which is setting LA gossip columns on fire.

With grueling pressure from the producers of Being Screwed, the hot vampire cable TV drama starring Mark's superstar son, Alexander, to make their wedding a worldwide spectacle, Alex and LAPD Lieutenant Billy Sharpe who is twenty years older than Alex, finally find the time to take the leap to get married in New York. But the two men want a private affair, not a media frenzy.

See how memories of the day Mark left Sharon Tice at the altar for the love of his life, ex-LAPD cop Steve Miller, haunts Jack Larsen, Mark's oldest and best friend. Find out how Jack copes with the ill will it begins to stir in him much to Jack's husband Adam Lewis' annoyance.

Keeping it Up. When it comes to Acting Naughty and Behaving Badly, the men of the Action! Series will manage to keep it up for a long time to 'come'.

Making Love; Book 13

In this newest edition to the Action! Series novels, Mark Antonious Richfield begins to question his high pressure LA lifestyle, made even more evident with the sale of his family's estate in Paradise, California.

Although Mark has always had mixed emotions about the home he grew up in, the emptiness of its loss has left more sadness in his heart.

Meanwhile, Lt Billy Sharpe of the LAPD, has been called to the scene of a hostage situation. Yes, Billy thought he had left the action of the SWAT team behind when he was transferred to internal affairs, but somehow he became swept up in the drama and risks his own life and the lives of his old SWAT team members. When Alexander Richfield, Mark's son-Billy's new husband, finds out that Billy has placed his life in jeopardy, Alex finds the act selfish and unforgivable.

As tensions mount between the couples and Mark's stress level becomes impossible for him to handle, the friction between partners begins to get hostile. When Mark realizes the impact Billy's actions have on his son, Mark is immediately drawn in as peacemaker between the two, and forbidden attractions begin to form.

Adam Lewis and his husband, Jack Larsen, Mark's longtime companion, realize something must change or Mark will self-destruct as he has done in the past. But this time it's impossible for either man to make a difference in anyone's lives but their own, and they too, nearly suffer from the consequences of the fallout from Lt Sharpe's life-changing decisions. Consequences which originate from Billy's on duty police incident start to have a domino effect; the actions which began from Billy putting his life on the line and directly into a shoot-out with a heavily armed suspect.

Another day in the life of the Action! Men...Superheroes or madmen- the one thing they can count on is love. And without Making Love, and holding onto their priorities, their relationships would fall apart.

Be anxious, laugh, cry, and enjoy another chapter in the lives of the men of the Action! Series you have grown to adore.

Staying Power; Book 14

In Book 14 of the Action! Series, ex-LAPD cop, Steve Miller thinks going to his husband's therapy appointments is a good idea. But he soon finds out Mark Antonious Richfield, may not be telling his shrink everything the doctor needs to know.

Meanwhile, Mark's son, Alexander, is offered the chance of a lifetime when a big named Hollywood director approaches him for a starring role in a block buster film, 'Bedtime Stories'.

While Alex and Adam Lewis, Alex's agent and one of Mark's dearest friends, tries to iron out a solid contract for Alex, Alex's husband, Lt Billy Sharpe makes the captain's list for the LAPD. So big changes are on the way for the newlyweds. But when Mark mentions he is nervous about Alexander leaving for Rome for filming, alone, Steve and Billy both take it upon themselves to confront Alex's leading man and co-star, nearly derailing Alex's chances for his break in Hollywood.

Conflict, jealousy, self-sacrifice and ego, in Book 14 of the Action! Series, the men's emotions are put to the test, and in the end, it's all about Staying Power- and the power of love.

Saying Goodbye; Book 15

When trust is shattered and bonds are broken, sometimes forgiveness simply isn't enough.

The men of the Action! Series have always been sexually driven-powerful and loyal. But that loyalty has been put to the ultimate test.

With twenty-four-year-old Alexander Richfield away in Rome starring in his first feature film, Bedtime Stories, his husband, forty-four year old, LAPD Captain Billy Sharpe's frustration and anger over rumors in the tabloid press about Alex's supposed exploits, bring Billy to a breaking point.

Adam Lewis, agent to the stars, and husband of Jack Larsen, feels obligated to invite a group of their close friends to the mansion in Paradise, California. The estate his and Jack's lover, Mark Antonious Richfield grew up in, which was recently bought by Adam's client and friend, Ewan Gallagher. Knowing the estate creates stress for Mark, Adam tries his best to pretend this is a weekend with the boys, and it's all in good fun.

Steven Jay Miller, Mark's husband, is still raw over Mark's actions to keep his son Alexander's role in the feature film secure. Mark had to grant sexual favors to Alex's co-star, Randy Dawson to right a wrong Steve and Billy had stupidly made, threatening Randy to keep away from Alex. An act Steve cannot move on from.

And as the men around him suffer from his actions, Mark Antonious Richfield begins to deteriorate and self-destruct.

Trust shatters...love is tested...and even the strongest ties can be severed.

Coming Home; Book 16

In Book 15, Saying Goodbye-Trust was shattered, lives were at risk, and the world had turned upside down for the men of the Action! Series.

Coming home...rebuilding relationships that had been severed to the point of fury, Mark Antonious Richfield finds moving on, trying to keep his sanity after his last suicide attempt, and his husband and his own, infidelity, a difficult task.

As Mark begins a journey of self-discovery, he again becomes entangled in the mess his husband, Steve Miller, and his son-in-law, Captain Billy Sharpe, have created. By intervening in Mark's son, Alexander's acting career, Billy, Alex's husband, and Steve, instilled hostilities that begin to rear their ugly head even after Alex's film is premiered.

Mark is forced to face more deep-rooted fears, and bears the brunt of the cleanup effort of the mess the two men had made.

Coming home. A sweet sentiment that makes one's heart warm. For Mark and his boys, it's a long journey to make.

Knowing Better; Book 17

In Book 17, 'Knowing Better', Mark Antonious Richfield has a birthday coming up. And growing older is something Mark wishes was a choice, not mandatory. As his stress over the increasingly racy ads for the car company begin to have an impact on Mark, Mark learns some terrible news. Someone very close to him has died.

As Mark's life once again becomes a pressure-cooker of doubt and confusion, Alexander, Mark's son, is asked to audition for yet another big blockbuster film, with a close friend, Carl Bronson.

Watching Alexander blossom into a superstar, Mark is both thrilled, yet slightly overwhelmed, since Alex seems to have it all, and that includes a powerful LAPD Captain husband, Billy Sharpe.

Knowing better, Mark tries to do the right thing, but as his patience is once again put to the test, and his husband, Steve Miller, is at a loss on how to keep Mark from self-destruction, life for the Action! men once again begins to grow complicated.

Knowing Better.

Knowing better and doing the right thing, sadly, are not always the same path.

Becoming Alex; Book 18

Alexander Mark Lehman-Richfield. What can you say about a young man who grew up surrounded by lies? His mother, Iris, had a one-night-stand, with a handsome man when she was single and working as a stripper to support her college tuition. His mother, who was now married and a primary school teacher, never even knew the man's name.

Eighteen years later, after coming out, living his life as a gay high-school student and withstanding bullying at the same time he was satisfying older men, Alex spotted a cologne ad in a glamour magazine.

It was then, he knew.

Mark Antonious Richfield, the Nation's Top Male Model, was his real father.

From the moment Alex stood at the front door of his birth father's home, as well as Mark's husband, former LAPD cop, Steve Miller, Alex's life changed forever.

From an unknown androgynous nymph, to a superstar in blockbuster films, Alex had done the unimaginable. He had accomplished his goals. And that included, marrying a gorgeous police officer, twenty years his senior, Captain Billy Sharpe.

But there was one flaw in the plan. Trust.

Alex hoped his life would be trouble free from now on.

Becoming Alex...

The present for Alex was already tough, the future? Impossible to predict. But one thing was certain, Alexander Mark Richfield, was destined for superstardom.

Doing the Dirty; Book 19

In book 18 of the Action! Series, Mark Antonious Richfield, Top Model, and ad executive for large firm in LA, was living his sexual fantasies in his head, much to the chagrin of his former LAPD police officer/advertising coworker husband, Steve Miller.

When the media begins to spin sordid gossip and lies, the men of the Action! Series, battle jealousy, emotional setbacks, and of course, fight for their true love.

While Alexander, Mark's twenty-six-year-old son, begins to rocket to superstardom, his forty-six year old LAPD police captain husband, Billy Sharpe's own ambitions to be the top cop begins to create more friction between the two.

With tempers flaring and Mark getting a motorcycle endorsement for his new Red cologne ads, everyone is once more, in a tailspin.

Doing the Dirty, fun or flirting with disaster?

Are you ready for another wild ride? Hold on to your helmets, because the men of the Action! Series are back for more adventure.

Anything But; Book 20

In Book 20 of the Action! Series, events come full circle.

As Carl Bronson waits for his next movie audition, the haunting warning of his talent agent, Adam Lewis, to deny, deny, deny, he was gay, was now becoming a reality. Carl's film work dries up and his husband and costar of their TV series, Keith O'Leary, has a dismal film debut.

Meanwhile, Alexander Mark Richfield seems to have the Midas touch. And his police captain husband, a man twenty years older than Alex, finds out he just may get everything he wants in life (or maybe not.)

As the men of the Action! Series come back together for a grand reunion, it seems as if things are finally falling into place.

But be prepared...

In the universe where Mark Antonious Richfield reigns as the World's Top Male Model, life is anything but...boring. For fans of the series, or a newcomer, enjoy another sex-filled romp with wild adventures.

The Action! Series; where dreams come true, men love men, superstars are made, and the media circus continues to be anything but- kind.

Mark & Billy; Book 21

For fans of the series-

The undeniable attraction between Chief of Police William P Sharpe, and top model Mark Antonious Richfield is a force more powerful than nature. Mark's superstar son, Alexander Richfield, a man twenty years younger than his husband, Billy Sharpe, shares his father's fetish for men in uniform, particularly Police Officers. Mark's husband, Steven J Miller, a former LAPD cop, and now a co-worker with Mark at an advertising firm, has a lot in common with the new Chief of Police. Both of them are former military, police officers, top dogs, and both, enamored with Mark and Alex.

When father and son begin to imagine what it would be like for the two dominant alpha males in their lives to play, it opens up an opportunity- to explore their options.

Love, strong bonds, and no limits...

This book is for Action! Series fans who have always wanted...but didn't get- enough of Mark & Billy.

This book contains married men having sexual relations with other married men.

Changing Times; Book 22

As we catch up with Mark Antonious Richfield and his friends and lovers, it becomes clear that life has changed for everyone in their close circle. Gone are the illusions of a rosy, bright future, and in its place, conflict hits.

Alexander, Mark's son, has a reunion with an old frenemy, a fabulous costar who manages to create a huge impact on Mark, Alex's Chief-of-Police husband, Billy Sharpe, as well as Mark's husband, former LAPD cop, Steve Miller.

Through the turmoil and frustration of life in the fast-lane, comes love. Love so powerful, it conquers all, or at least if not all, it becomes a support system for a fragile world; A world of mistrust, anguish, and loss.

Get ready for another adventure with the wild men of the Action! Series.

Changing Times...

"You once told me you would never share Alexander."

"I'm not sharing Alex. They're sharing me."

There's an exception to every rule.

Mark Antonious Richfield; Book 23

Mark Antonious. The anchor, the star, and the center of the Action! Series universe.

What happens when Mark leaves for a Dangereux Cologne company's convention tour?

As Alexander, Mark's son, begins a new feature film in Oregon, Billy, Steve, Jack, Adam, and now Tadzio, the newest planet to begin to orbit Mark, are left without father and son.

What occurs next isn't what you'd expect.

As the men in Mark's world find out just how life would be in his absence, it becomes clear to all that the Nation's Top Male Model is the powerhouse everyone clings to, including the former LAPD cop, Steve Miller, and Alexander's husband, Chief of Police Billy Sharpe.

You don't know what you have...until you lose it.

With the weight of the world on his shoulders, and regrets looming, Mark's loyalties are clear.

The last thing you want is Mark as your enemy.

Mark Antonious Richfield; much more than just a pretty face.

Obsession; Book 24

New to the Action! Series? This book is a great place to start your adventure!

All of the Action! Series books can be read as 'stand-alone' novels.

A week in the life of the Action! men is always entertaining. While Mark Antonious Richfield is about to be paired up with a masculine hunk for his cologne modeling shoot, Mark is enjoying his new found friend. With the sexual tension at its usual high, Chief of Police Billy Sharpe and Mark's husband, the former cop, Steve Miller, grow closer, sharing common ground.

Battling for sanity and a good night's rest, Mark discovers something that may ease his insomnia, as well as give him a hearty appetite. But his decision is weighed heavily by the police officers in his life.

With pressure from all sides, as well as bad news hitting their extended family of lovers and friends, Mark and the gang are busy with the thing we call...life.

Share the trials and tribulations of the men you have grown to know and love...

The Action! Series...where love conquers all.

Loving Stan; Book 26

All things must change.

In book 26 of the Action! Series, an infatuation grows to deep love.

As Mark and Stan fly to New York City for a Dangereux Cologne promotional tour, their affection blossoms to an inseparable bond. As rumors fly and their attachment becomes public, family and friends react to the news.

Mark's husband, Steve Miller, is left with the fallout, on his own while Mark spends time with a man twenty years his junior.

But, Steve refuses to crumble in the face of the catastrophe. Instead, he goes on a sexual tear, which distracts him from reality.

With love being tested and life moving forward, both Mark and Steve face a decision that rocks the men of the Action! Series.

Loving Stan.

Mark can't help himself. While the two men share secrets and their bodies with each other, Mark and Stan brave the coming upheaval.

Love. The heart simply goes where it desires. Loving Stan, part of a trilogy inside a series.

'Obsession, California Dreaming, & Loving Stan' three books which complete a story on their own.

Moving On; Book 27

After the traumatic upheaval of Book 26- Loving Stan; the men of the Action! Series battle to recover and gain normalcy. Mark Antonious Richfield, faced with friction from every direction for his choices, craves a drama-free life, but with a man like Mark, it never is.

Steven Jay Miller, Mark's husband, is still reeling from the backlash and anger of Mark's decisions. He finds living on the periphery of Mark's life infuriating.

Is it possible for the two men to reconcile? Or have their lives been changed forever?

Moving on...

It's a desire but not always reality, when couples who have loved for a decade, fall apart.

Falling Hard; Book 28

As things ramp up for the men of the Action! Series, the fallout from Mark and Steve's separation continues to play havoc on the group. What has become intolerable friction between them, splits the close-knit men apart, choosing sides.

As Mark Antonious Richfield battles to gain what he lost, his father's billion-dollar business, his husband Steven Jay Miller, forces himself to come to terms with reality.

But all is not lost for the two men...

The dust will settle... the love remains.

And...an even stronger partnership has been made between them.

Mark & Steve- Falling Hard...we skinned our knees when we did it as kids.

As adults, we fall for another reason. Passion and loyalty.

And it's both of those traits that keep the men of the Action! Series from falling...apart.

Richfield-Miller International; Book 29

As spring arrives, bringing hope and nourishing rains to Southern California, the men of the Action! Series also find a little relief from the chaos.

In the midst of their divorce, Mark Antonious Richfield and Steven Jay Miller join forces to take over the mega company Mark's father had owned. Both men are inspired by the potential of a bright future, but...they aren't in the clear yet.

The Swedish model, Tadzio Andresen, is losing hope he will get to remain in LA much longer.

The superstar, Mark's son, Alexander, runs himself into the ground from fear and overworking.

The police chief, Billy Sharpe, ends up in hot water.

And, the new kid on the block, Stan Charles, brings Mark a step closer to his dream of having children.

While the corporate world reacts with rising stock to the announcement of a new partnership, the lives of the men of the Action! Series continue to spin out of control.

But, by placing one foot in front of the other, they battle forward... against all odds.

Waiting to Breathe; Book 30

It seems as if everyone surrounding Mark Antonious Richfield is waiting.

Waiting for love, waiting for success, waiting to be married.

Steven Jay Miller, Mark's ex-husband is waiting for a sign. One he may never get, from the top model.

The fabulous blond Swedish twink, Tadzio Andresen is waiting...for Steve to make a decision.

Chief of Police Billy Sharpe, is once again in trouble, waiting for a break from the chaos, and Alexander Mark Richfield appears to be losing the battle for sanity while he waits for his father and Steve to reconcile.

Life in Los Angeles with the men of the Action! Series can be challenging. Yet, hopefully, worthwhile.

In reality, Mark is just waiting for the chance...to breathe.

Waiting...sometimes the things we want most in life are worth that wait.

With the men of the Action! Series, only time will tell.

Sons & Lovers; Book 31

Mark Antonious Richfield is still powering on- at full speed- getting his father's billion-dollar manufacturing company into the future, with Steven Jay Miller, his new partner, right by his side.

Alexander Mark Richfield is losing his mind over the new guy in his dad's life, Stan Charles.

Chief of Police Billy Sharpe gets a lucky break at work, and Jack Larsen receives some bad news from Florida.

The boys from LA are back!

Get into the Action! groove, as Mark creates havoc with his son, and his many lovers.

Holding Tight; Book 32

In book 32 of the Action! Series, we catch up with the gang from LA. Mark Antonious Richfield and his ex-husband Steven Jay Miller work as a dynamic duo getting the mega corporation, RICHFIELD-MILLER INTERNATIONAL back to its prime. And, as Mark's formal wedding ceremony looms, they are contacted by a style magazine to cover it. He and his twenty-six-year-old modeling partner, Stan Charles, are set to celebrate their union for Stan's family in New York, even though the couple has eloped; both men eager to move forward, with babies on the brain.

Stan and Alexander Richfield, Mark's son, end up cast in a steamy gay romance film, and are forced to do simulated sex scenes, which the two of them dread.

Mark and his son spend some quality father/son time in hopes of helping Alex's anger at the divorce.

Holding tight. Whether it's for love, or for control, sometimes you can't get what you want, until you loosen the noose and set your fears free.

Living in Paradise: Book 33

Living in paradise...

It was a dream. A dream each of the men in Mark Richfield's orbit, wanted.

As Alex and Stan suffer through filming the on-location scenes in Manhattan's Diamond District, Steve Miller, Mark's ex-husband and business partner, plans on reigniting their passion, in Paris.

Tadzio Andresen, the hot Swedish runway model continues to feel left behind, but ends up staying with Chief of Police Billy Sharpe when Alexander leaves for New York.

Jack Larsen and his husband Adam Lewis, sadly, receive more bad news from Florida.

Mark Antonious Richfield continues to battle to get his life back;

A life that the impetuous former cop had stolen from Mark that day he had swept Mark off the wedding altar, away from Sharon Tice. That fateful day, when Mark sacrificed everything for Steve, had come back to haunt him.

But he will get it back. Oh, yes. He will.

Come along on a journey as the men from LA continue to make the best of it, and find their way to Paradise.

Still Standing; Book 34

In Book 34 of the Action! Series we find the boys from LA still battling to feel normal after the upheaval.

Alexander Richfield, Mark's impetuous son, acts out one last time in rebellion. The fallout from Mark and Steve's divorce hit the young superstar hard. But...Alexander is finally coming back to himself after a last troubling act of aggression, one aimed at Mark's new man.

Meanwhile, Steven Jay Miller, the former cop turned CEO continues to power through life, finding love for his new sexy Swedish runway model, Tadzio Andresen. With everything Steve has ever dreamed of now in his grasp, Steve has never been happier.

Sadly, the Chief of Police, Billy Sharpe, cannot say the same. Billy is hit with more grief and accusations when a video shows up of him, broadcasted on a local news station, causing the career law enforcer to reassess his life.

And, then there's the Top Model Mark Antonious Richfield. As Mark's dream of being a new father becomes a reality, Mark and his new husband, Stan Charles...Richfield, push through the hate and rage that surrounds them. And Mark's relationship with his son, Alex, has never been more tenuous.

But, through the chaos, all of the men of the series are still standing; not discouraged and not giving up.

Join the characters you have grown to adore in the Action! Series as they continue to battle for sanity, love, and peace of mind.

Starting Over; Book 35

After a summer from hell, the boys from LA are finally settling down. The Chief of Police, Billy Sharpe, makes a life-changing decision, but one he can live with.

Father and son, Top-Model Mark Antonious Richfield and superstar Alexander Richfield, battle through their issues, having it out finally during a session with Alex's psychiatrist. Mark is determined to get his son to finally accept Mark's new young husband, Stan, once and for all.

Steve Miller is not only in love with his fabulous Swedish runway model husband, Tadzio Andresen- who is full of surprises; he is also finding out how much he loves his life working at Richfield-Miller International, and living in a massive, posh estate in Paradise, California.

For the fans who have survived what was a chaotic upheaval from the men of the Action! Series the reward is happiness and acceptance, not to mention, loads of sexy fun.

Join the characters you've come to cherish as family members, as they start their lives over again, trying desperately to get it right.

Nothing to Lose; Book 36

In book 36 of the Action! Series, we find the men from LA ready to celebrate the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday at the posh mansion in Paradise.

Mark Antonious Richfield returns to the nighttime cable drama, Forever

Young, to reunite with the stars for their final season.

Alexander Richfield and Stan Charles Richfield, attend their film premiere, Lover Boy, with disastrous results.

LAPD SWAT lieutenant Billy Sharpe is back on the front lines and Steven Jay Miller and his new husband, Tadzio Andresen, dive into work at Mark's father's company, Richfield-Miller International.

Top Model turned CEO, Mark Antonious Richfield hosts all of your favorite characters from the series in grand style as the extended families and friends socialize and new bonds are formed.

Nothing to Lose...as we chase happiness and hold onto true love and past lovers, we rely most on the people closest to us, to keep us sane.

Tail in Two Cities; Book 37

In this latest Action! Series book, we resume the Thanksgiving Holiday weekend where the last book left off.

As the guests enjoy the estate, gorge on gourmet food and play naughty games together, reality starts to set in.

Eventually the friends and lovers will be apart, at opposite ends of the state. Alex and Billy struggle with the temptation of staying permanently, but the LAPD lieutenant isn't prepared to leave SWAT.

Jack Larsen and his husband Adam Lewis, also grapple with the notion of leaving their home in Malibu and living in Paradise, but, that isn't the answer for the two men either.

But, the individual with a looming conflict in their life is Tadzio Andresen-Miller, Steve's new husband. With the prospect of being away from Alexander, Tadzio goes on a sexual tear, battling his own insecurity and self doubt.

And after the four days of joy, love, and family, the mansion becomes a desolate empty space.

Come back to Mark and the boys from two cities; Los Angeles and Sacramento, California, as they struggle with love, life, and loss.

Finding Hope; Book 38

In this latest book in the Action! Series, we find Becca McKenna, the Nation's Top Male Model Mark Antonious Richfield and his new young husband Stan's surrogate baby's due date fast approaching.

While the stress of a newborn infant about to join the men living in the estate in Paradise, California, bears down on them, Steve Miller and his husband, the Swedish model, Tadzio, continue to work at Mark's father's mega company, Richfield-Miller International in Sacramento.

Superstar Alexander Mark Richfield is away shooting a new film, Pirates, in the Bahamas, and his LAPD SWAT lieutenant husband, Billy Sharpe is involved in yet another shooting while working with the FBI in Los Angeles.

Mark continues to beg Dangereux cologne to hire a replacement for him, and that lucky man is one of Billy Sharpe's SWAT team officers, Joe Scarbino. As the men of the Action! Series get into the groove after the holidays, more bad news strikes them; coming from every direction.

Finding hope when life throws horrific news at them, the men of the series continue to support each other through terrible times, as well as finding hope...in new life. A precious baby is born, bringing love, happiness, and the hope of good things on the horizon.

Dangereux Liaisons; Book 39

In this edition of the Action! Series, we have a new arrival. Mark Antonious Richfield and Stan Charles Richfield's son, Isaac Milton Richfield, or 'Zak' as they call him, decided to enter their world two weeks earlier than anticipated.

While Alexander Mark Richfield, Mark's twenty-nine-year-old superstar son, was away shooting a pirate film in the Bahamas, Alex's LAPD SWAT Lieutenant husband, and a man twenty years older than Alex, Billy Sharpe, once more battles foes in the streets of Los Angeles, much to everyone's terror.

As the models for Dangereux cologne prove too hot to handle, more chaos ensues for the men; especially for Mark.

Having made another err in judgment, Mark Antonious is once more in a tailspin as his own Dangereux liaison with his old flame, drives him crazy with guilt.

Don't miss the next book in the series, and the mad adventures of the men from LA you have grown to adore.

Bad Lieutenant; Book 40

In this next episode of the Action! Series, we catch up with LAPD SWAT Lieutenant William Paul Sharpe; 'Billy'. Billy's powerful presence in the series looms large as the forty-nine-year-old law enforcer once more becomes the center of the story.

Billy and his superstar husband, Alexander Mark Richfield, a young man twenty years the lieutenant's junior, have once again come to a crossroads in their relationship after Alex's infidelity while filming his last movie. The two men come to an agreement, one they can both accept.

Meanwhile, former cop turned CEO-Steve Miller's new husband Tadzio Andresen, continues his transition from a gorgeous male runway model, to a woman, with the full support of his husband.

Mark Antonious Richfield is in heaven with his newborn son, 'Zak' and has fallen into fatherhood with outstretched arms. His young stud husband, Stan Charles Richfield, gets a movie offer he is struggling to refuse.

Add to this mix of characters you love and hate, is Joe Scarbino. The hot SWAT cop turned model, has one thing on his mind. Mark.

Find out what happens next in this continuing saga about the boys from LA.

'Tadzio' Dancing in the Dark; Book 41

Ever since the blond Swedish runway model joined the men of the Action! Series Tadzio Andresen-Miller has been both, a nurturer and a seducer. Having struggled with his gender identity since he was a young teen, Tadzio's marriage to former cop, turned CEO, Steven Jay Miller, gives him an opportunity to continue his journey, transitioning from a man to a woman.

Meanwhile, Mark Antonious Richfield's new young husband is offered a mega role in a new Navy SEAL film starring all of Alex's former costars. Needless to say, the seasoned vets aren't too pleased with Stan getting a coveted role.

LAPD SWAT Lt Billy Sharpe finds his new, 'open marriage' policy with his young superstar husband, Alexander Mark Richfield, backfires miserably.

While the men of LA continue to strive for love, happiness and hope, they both celebrate the joys of victory, and the misery of betrayal.

Enjoy this next episode on the series and fall in love all over again with the boys from LA.

B is for Bravo; Book 42

In this episode of the Action! Series, we join the men from LA as Stan Charles Richfield begins production on his new film role as a Navy SEAL in B is for Bravo. While Stan deals with the animosity coming from the A-list Hollywood stars who resent him being given top billing, Stan finds an unlikely ally; top rated movie star, Jeremy Runner.

Meanwhile, Tadzjo Andresen-Miller, Steve's new 'wife' has gone through her top-surgery in her transformation to become a woman.

The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield has another close encounter with his ex-fiancée Sharon Tice-Hill, one that leaves him shaken to the core.

Love is a Four Letter Word; Book 54

In this episode of the Action! Series we come to the big first birthday celebration for Mark Antonious Richfield and Stan Charles Richfield's son, Isaac. With the estate filled with friends and family and after weeks of planning, the Nation's Top Male Model anticipated the perfect day for his son...until...someone unexpected crashes the party.

Meanwhile, Mark's first husband, Steven Jay Miller, struggles with his anger and resentment over the situation, and finds comfort in his mother's words.

Loose cannon LAPD SWAT cop Joe Scarbino strikes up an unlikely friendship with a movie actor, and has high hopes he can finally land a celebrity husband, but his 'date' is deep in the closet.

Love. Once you had it and then it vanished. Where does the love go?

For Sharon, Love is a four letter word, and not the one she would use to describe how she feels for her former fiancé, Mark Antonious Richfield.

Horsing Around; Book 55

In episode 55 of the Action! Series, we find what's left of the party's aftermath. While the Nation's Top Male Model Mark Antonious Richfield is in a tailspin over the chaos, Mark's gay male posse stay well clear of the disaster named Sharon Tice-Hill. Mark's former fiancée and baby-mama makes the men's life miserable.

Steven Jay Miller avoids controversy at work and finds pleasure in buying his niece Chloe a little mare named Sally to ride when she visits the estate.

And one of the couples of the Action! Series is in trouble. With the rise of Carl Bronson's success and awards, his husband, Keith O'Leary continued to struggle with the possible cancelation of their nighttime TV show and no offers in sight.

Fool in the Rain; Book 56

In episode 56 of the Action! Series, we rejoin the men from LA as they prepare for the Academy Awards celebration. Carl Bronson, one of the men from Mark Antonious Richfield's inner circle, was nominated for the award of Best Actor for his film role in B is for Bravo, in direct competition with Jeremy Runner, who was nominated for his role in The Hard Way, costarring with Alexander Richfield.

While Carl's career is exploding and new offers for great scripts came his way after his outstanding performance in the Navy SEAL movie, his husband, Keith O'Leary is struggling.

The jealousy between the two begins to come to a head as the couple fail to maintain peace when their careers proceed in opposite directions.

Meanwhile, the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, continues to battle his former fiancée and baby-mama, Sharon Tice-Hill for visitation for his newborn son, Jacob Bentley Tice-Hill.

Jack Larsen heads back to Fort Lauderdale to find resolution for his mother's murder, as his talent agent husband, Adam Lewis, has to relive a terrible time in his life when a reporter interviews him on the experience he had with his former agency partner; Jack Turner. Garth Ross' tell-all book about the vile Jack Turner is being written; a book about Turner's notorious couch practices and abuses of young men.

Balancing Act; Book 60

In episode 60 of the Action! Series, we find the men from LA falling back into chaos and drama. Butte County Fire Captain Hunter Rasmussen gets into trouble during a raging forest fire and Talent Agent Adam Lewis' agency is reeling from the release of the tell-all book about his former partner, Jack Turner's couch practices.

While the two men cope with huge hurdles in their lives, the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, adapts to life with his youngest son, Jacob Bentley. Jacob's mother, Mark's former fiancée, Sharon Tice, drives the Top Model out of his mind, which isn't a far trip.

Meanwhile, actor Keith O'Leary lands a huge role in a feature film that could change the course of his career, while his husband, Carl Bronson, finishes wrapping his big movie in Paris, and returns to Los Angeles.

Drawing the Line; Book 61

In episode 61 of the Action! Series we find Actor Jeremy Runner and LAPD CPT cop, Joe Scarbino still together and still hiding from the public as rumors about Jeremy possibly being gay resurface.

Meanwhile, talent agent Adam Lewis is reeling from a tell-all book about his former agency partner Jack Turner's couch practices. With the current 'me-too' hash-tag movement, Adam is losing clients at an alarming rate. His attorney husband, Jack Larsen, is now working with the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, and his ex-husband, Steven Jay Miller, at their garment manufacturing firm.

The three CEOs commute to Sacramento by chopper daily. Could there be trouble on the horizon between Tadzio and Steve? Firefighter Hunter Rasmussen battles with his bruised ego after resigning from the fire service... but, the handsome fireman has options... and gets back on his feet once more.

Flying High; Book 62

In episode 62 of the Action! Series, we find Steven Jay Miller and Tadzio Andresen-Miller's marriage on the rocks. As Tadzio's movie premiere looms closer, she battles to keep functioning, staying with Alex and Billy in Los Angeles.

Steve brings his new man to the estate and his ex-husband, Mark Antonious Richfield, isn't happy about it. And, while Mark's second husband, Stan Charles Richfield is on a tour with Dangereux Cologne, Mark ends up in bed with...whom?

Meanwhile, Alexander Mark Richfield begins a new feature film with Aussie heartthrob, Hugh Beckett, making the superstar a happy actor!

Drama, laughter, and a whole lot of love...come back to the men from LA as they fly high and then drop back down to earth.

Never Giving Up; Book 63

In episode 63 of the Action! Series we join the gang at the estate in Paradise, California for a celebration for Susan Miller's 70th birthday. The Nation's Top Male Model Mark Antonious Richfield hosts the affair, since his ex-husband, Steven Jay Miller, is preoccupied. Even before Steve divorces his second spouse, a Swedish trans-woman, Tadzio Andresen, the former cop turned CEO invites his new boyfriend; jet pilot Toby Smith.

Mark's preoccupation with his ex-husband's infatuation clouds his judgment and limits his enjoyment of a houseful of friends. Meanwhile, Tadzio hears some bad news from Sweden, and has to fly home. But, will she go alone? Or take someone along with her?

Rainbow's End; Book 64

In this explosive episode 64 of the Action! Series we reunite with the boys from LA. Transgender actress Tadzio Andresen is in Sweden, seeing her parents for the first time since her top surgery and transformation into a woman. Needless to say, it does not go well. The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield finds out his ex-fiancée and baby-mama Sharon Tice-Hill has spoken to the tabloid press about their affair and other very personal information about him, and explodes with rage.

Meanwhile, Steven Jay Miller, the former cop turned CEO finds out just how intense his new boyfriend, Pilot Toby Smith is. Steve can barely keep up with the extreme athlete, as he also tries to divorce Tadzio without paying her a huge settlement. LAPD Officer Joe Scarbino gets some outrageous news about the home he used to occupy in Van Nuys, as well as losing his patience with his Hollywood actor boyfriend, Jeremy Runner, who appears more committed to staying in the closet, than to being a true partner to him.

And the hottest daddy in the LAPD, Lieutenant Billy Sharpe gets another proposition...does he cheat on Alexander Mark Richfield?

Haunting the Past; Book 65

In episode 65 of the Action! Series, we find the men in Paradise, California celebrating Christmas. The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, hosts over thirty guests at his estate for a wonderful weekend. Mark and his new husband, Stan Charles Richfield's surrogate, Becca McKenna comes to the manor, and a big surprise awaits Mark, as baby number three makes an unexpected appearance! Steve Miller, Mark's ex-husband and co-owner of their garment manufacturing firm has a rocky time with his new boyfriend, Pilot Toby Smith, once more screwing up his relationship.

Adding to the chaos, Josh Elliot, the lifeguard and lunatic, videotapes the handsome men at play for his new video channel.

Smoking Gun; Book 66

In episode 66 of the Action! Series, the boys from LA survived the holiday season. As spring comes to the meadow with blossoms of wildflowers, the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, welcomes his eldest son, Hollywood actor, Alexander Mark Richfield, and his husband, Billy Sharpe, as they move north to the mansion in Paradise, California.

While Alexander gets a new role in another film, 'Smoking Gun,' as a street hustler, Billy retires from the LAPD and helps Mark out with his three very young children.

Meanwhile, closeted actor, Jeremy Runner, gets a shock as his 'beard' decides to announce she's pregnant with his child, which Jeremy knows is impossible. This chaos comes right as Jeremy is offered a mega-starring role in another epic George Ford war saga. But, there's a catch. Mr Ford wants Jeremy to persuade Mark's second husband, Stan Charles Richfield, to join the all-star cast.

A Year at An Khe; Book 67

In episode 67 of the Action! Series, we catch up with the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield. Mark has his hands full with three very young children to watch. He finds additional help from his son-in-law, former LAPD lieutenant, Billy Sharpe.

While Alex, Mark's son and Billy's husband, stays in Los Angeles filming his new movie, Smoking Gun, Mark's second husband, Stan Richfield, begins his new blockbuster war movie, A Year at An Khê. With both of their husbands away from the estate in Paradise, Billy wonders if Mark will 'play'.

Meanwhile actor Jeremy Runner finally makes a plan to propose to his boyfriend, LAPD CPT cop and part-time Dangereux Cologne model, Joe Scarbino. Jeremy had recently come out publicly, so why not pop the question? But, he needed a unique way to tell that klutzy cop he wanted him as his husband. With the help of the cast of his new Vietnam War movie, A Year at An Khê, Jeremy finds a way.

Forever Young; Book 68

In episode 68 of the Action! Series we find the mansion in Paradise, California, filled with family and friends for Father's Day weekend. The guests, the entire cast of characters from the series that you've grown to love, join Mark Antonious Richfield, the Nation's Top Male Model to frolic in the sun.

Then, Mark receives a mysterious package in the mail, which stuns him, and his best friends. While they enjoy the incredible thirteen-bedroom mansion, one equipped with two pools, tennis, basketball courts, and a stable with horses, over thirty guests wine and dine at the posh estate.

Fresh from production on a Vietnam War movie, A Year at An Khê, Hollywood actors, Stan Richfield, Carl Bronson, Keith O'Leary and Jeremy Runner, recount their harrowing experiences from the films action sequences. Not only that, but talent agent Adam Lewis has wonderful news to announce to his celebrity clients.

Meanwhile, former LA lifeguard, Josh Elliot, lures the actors to continue his video-channel escapades, 'Bathtub Interviews' with hilarious results. When Josh finally gets Mark Antonious Richfield into a tub, he gets a lot more than he bargained for.

Get ready for gourmet food, the laughter of children, a crazy mutt, fun in the Northern California sunshine, and plenty of sex! Come back home to the boys from LA and get lost in their joyous universe!

Golden Thunder; Book 69

In episode 69 of the Action! Series we return to the men from LA to find trouble.

Alexander Mark Richfield, Hollywood superstar, attends an award ceremony with his former LAPD lieutenant Billy Sharpe. What should be a happy occasion for the couple, turns into a disaster, as both men's secret affairs come to light.

After a weekend with family and friends, Mark Antonious Richfield, the Nation's Top Male Model, buys a horse for his eldest son, Alexander. A golden palomino, Golden Thunder, joins the other four horses at the stable in Paradise, California.

Sadly, Alex's bravado and a fiery fight with the lieutenant, leads to a nearly perilous incident.

Meanwhile, Steven Jay Miller, interviews a handsome new buyer for his and Mark's garment manufacturing firm, one he is 'smitten' with. While Steve's mind is on his work, Steve's new boyfriend, Pilot Toby Smith, begs the former cop, turned CEO to go camping with him.

Camping?

Not Steve's cup of tea.

Come back to the lunacy of the men from LA as they rejoice their victories, and endure their pitfalls.

Choosing Sides; Book 70

In episode 70 of the Action! Series, we catch up with the men from LA while summer continues marching on.

As two movie premieres approach, Stan Charles Richfield's mega Vietnam War movie, A Year at An Khê, and Alexander Mark Richfield's film, Smoking Gun, the Hollywood actors prepare for a weekend in Los Angeles.

The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, frets about his son Jacob. Mark is torn in two when it comes to allowing Jacob to see his mother, Sharon Tice-Hill. Knowing he must, for his son's sake, Mark pressures his best friend from college, Jack Larsen, to make a choice.

Meanwhile, LAPD detective lieutenant, Jeff Chandler, uncovers an ugly crime while investigating a hanging, and LAPD CPT cop Joe Scarbino, plans his wedding to actor Jeremy Runner.

I Doozy!; Book 71

In episode 71 of the Action! Series, we reunite with the men for Labor Day weekend. As the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, gets his estate ready for Jeremy Runner and Joe Scarbino's wedding, he tweaks his back and the bad luck begins.

The men living at the manor house in Paradise, start to leave, not wanting to deal with a wedding. As the couples depart, two by two, they each have their own adventure.

Jack and Adam return to their beach house in Malibu to find it taken over by 20-somethings.

Blake and Hunter stay with Josh and Tanner, and end up tricked into eating hot peppers for Josh's video channel.

Steve and Toby spend the weekend together, but it doesn't turn out the way they had planned.

And Mark and Stan are left to deal with the three young children, and a dog, all of whom misbehave during the weekend.

As the three-day holiday weekend progresses, a lesson is learned by all.

There's no place like home.

Tricking for Treats; Book 72

In this special hour & a half (wink-wink) holiday episode we rejoin the men from LA preparing for a busy Halloween weekend.

The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, dreads turning the big 5-0 next month, so he decides to join his young second husband, Stan, and parttime Dangereux model, Joe Scarbino, on tour with the cologne company, to boost his sinking ego.

Meanwhile, Josh Elliot figures out a new idea for his video channel. A fundraiser using the men from LA to raise money. After listening to the standup routine of Lou McFadden, a close buddy, Josh has the guys dress in the skimpy volleyball outfits designed for women, and play a game at the estate.

With the scary holiday approaching, LAPD Homicide Lieutenant Jeff Chandler, gets one heck of a scary call to deal with as some of the men reminisce about their own childhood trick or treats experiences, while others have horrific nightmares, Milt Richfield inspired!

Bucking the System; Book 73

In episode 73 of the Action! Series, we catch up to the men from LA right as the Nation's Top Male model, Mark Antonious Richfield's big 5-0 is approaching.

While Mark battles with his inner demons and advancing age, the rest of the guys avoid mentioning the dreaded date, trying not to piss the handsome man off.

Meanwhile, Swedish transgender actress-model Tadzio Andresen, meets a kindred spirit. A very young man who is also, going through the process of transitioning. Since the pretty blond's family rejects him, Tadzio invites the lithe young man to stay with her and her second husband, LAPD cop, Matt Nolf.

Newlywed LAPD officer Joe Scarbino has his family over for the weekend at Jeremy Runner and his Beverly Hills mansion. Joe finds out his coming out, and marrying a celebrity makes no difference to the way his family, and particularly his older brothers, treat him.

Josh Elliot, former LA lifeguard, releases another video on his channel, and interviews actors in his new sound stage, finding the celebs, once naked and in a bathtub with him, tend to reveal secrets!

Bucking the System. It's Mark's intention to reinvent himself, avoiding the stigma that comes with age, and live up to his dreams and potential. A whopping hard task to tackle.

Leaving Home; Book 74

In episode 74 of the Action! Series, we catch up to the men from LA for the approach of Thanksgiving Day. With the approach of fall and the cooler, wetter California weather, the men from Paradise and Los Angeles prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving.

The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, is not hosting a Thanksgiving dinner with a mob this year, planning on a huge gathering for Christmas.

While each of the characters plan their own holiday celebration, we find Alexander Mark Richfield, Hollywood superstar, working on Keith O'Leary's new detective drama, Bucking the System, while his retired LAPD hubby stays with Mark and the three tots.

Alex's anger at Billy's acts of betrayal bring the young celebrity to the brink of a bad decision.

Meanwhile, a new young twink enters the lives of Tadzio Andresen, Swedish actress, transgender model, and her second husband, LAPD officer Matt Nolf. Matt's squad mates are eager to get the pretty blond into their bed.

But, It's Christmas!; Book 75

In this yearend season finale, we find a grand gathering at the manor house in Paradise, California. The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, hosts friends and family for this year's holiday weekend.

Alexander Mark Richfield, Mark's superstar Hollywood actor son, invites his mother, Iris Lehman, to the estate for the first time. Iris is stunned at the lavish home and sumptuous meals her son is being treated to.

Meanwhile, all is not picture perfect for the guests as Mark's deceased father, Milt Richfield, has a few plans of his own.

Savor this last episode of the year, and enjoy the gang from LA as they play sexy games, dine on gourmet fare, and romp in the meadows!

Looking Back; Book 76

Warning! This episode has an act of betrayal on an epic scale.

It contains cheating and broken hearts. Read at your own risk.

It also ends with a cliffhanger.

Timing is Everything; Book 77

In this episode of the Action! Series we find Top Model Mark Antonious Richfield and the men left at the mansion in Paradise reeling from the betrayal.

Slowly, life begins to return to normal at the manor house. Stan, Mark's second husband, and his daughter Lily fly to New York, where Stan seeks refuge from the chaos with his parents.

Mark's eldest son, Alexander Richfield returns to live with transgender Swedish actress, Tadzio Andresen and her LAPD husband, Matt Nolf in LA.

Former fireman Blake Hughes, Mark's nanny, keeps Mark's two young sons distracted from the disaster their Daddy Stan has created, and invites some of their friends to Paradise, to help comfort Mark and try to keep sanity for the men living there.

And Billy Sharpe, Alex's husband, has some big decisions to make, as does Mark's first husband, Steven Jay Miller.

Come back to the men of the Action! Series and catch up on their lives as they battle for love, life, and the pursuit of happiness.

Pressing Matters; Book 78

In this episode of the Action! Series, we find the tensions still raging from Mark Antonious Richfield's separation from his second husband, Stan Bergman. Mark's eldest son, Alexander Mark Richfield's affair with Mark's second husband has created a rift in the relationship between father and son, which may be a permanent parting.

Sadly, for all parties involved, the media gets wind of the affair and hounds both Mark and his son, trying to get to the bottom of the juicy gossip.

Meanwhile, LAPD homicide detective lieutenant Jeff Chandler, has more pressing matters. He is called to respond to another suspicious death of a casting agent. Jeff quickly connects the two deaths, which were similar, and is hot on the trail of the suspect. A suspect that turns out to be a Hollywood actor.

Come back to the boys from LA as they struggle for truth, happiness, and love, while avoiding a media fiasco of epic proportions.

Gentleman's Agreement; Book 79

In episode 79 of the Action! Series we find the guys still dealing with the awkwardness of Alexander Mark Richfield's deeds.

Billy meets up with his old SWAT buddies and army crush, Ken, to spend a weekend at the lake near San Diego, where he'd found Lady, his dog. As a few of the gay couples join Billy, Alex also decides to go. Billy tolerates Alex's presence there, but soon Alex's behavior becomes irrational and the Hollywood superstar makes the men fishing and relaxing, edgy.

And then, Mark gets a surprise birthday visit from his youngest child, Lily.

Alex the Not So Great; Book 80

In episode 80 of the Action! Series Thanksgiving weekend has arrived and Billy and Alexander are the only two regular guests not invited to the estate in Paradise, California.

As guests flock to the estate owned by the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, there is a noticeable gap left by the Lieutenant. Billy Sharpe's mood is not good as he 'suffers' through a dinner with Alexander Richfield's mother, stepfather, and half-brothers.

Meanwhile, wedding bells are ringing for Mark and Steve Miller, as well as another couple in their tight circle.

While dining on sumptuous meals and enjoying all the amenities the manor house has to offer, the guests share thoughts on Alexander and Billy's absence.

Can father and son reunite? Or are Alex and his dad, Mark's, destined to become another Milt Richfield/Mark Antonious lousy father/son relationship?

New Year, Schmooyear; Book 81

In episode 81 of the Action! Series we meet up with the men during Christmas weekend. Mark Richfield and Steve Miller are with Isaac and Jacob, Mark's sons, to visit their sister, Lily, and dad, Stan Bergman, in New York. While they are in the Big Apple, Mark visits his New York office of his company, RMI. They meet Stan's new beau, a producer his own age.

Stan is starring in a Broadway show called Joe Orton Slept Here and feels as if his life has taken a turn for the better.

Meanwhile, CPT officer, Joe Scarbino, hosts his family from Mesa, Arizona for the weekend. He begins to feel very ill, but keeps his symptoms secret, not wanting to upset his Hollywood actor husband, Jeremy Runner.

Actor Carl Bronson finds out he may not be able to host the late show permanently, because... he's gay. But his agent, Adam Lewis, figures out a way to get the public aware of the issue. A bathtub interview with Josh Elliot.

Come back to the men from LA and Paradise, as they fly by the seat of their pants, and try like heck to make the holidays happy.

Backdoor Pilot; Book 82

In episode 82 of the Action! Series, we catch up with the men of Paradise and LA in time for Valentine's Day. Alexander Mark Richfield is delighted to find his old director, Charlotte Deavers, wants him to star in a new pilot series called, A Room at the Top, ending Alex's long drought of unsuccessful auditions.

Carl Bronson, an actor, is finally given the job of hosting the late-night talk show, and the producers request Mark and his sons as the guests for Carl's premiere show.

Mark Antonious Richfield and French actor, Henre Ward, model together for Dangereux Cologne, sparking rumors about Henre's sexuality.

Jumping the Rails; Book 83

In episode 83 of the Action! Series, we find Isaac Milton Richfield, Mark Antonious Richfield- The Nation's Top Male Model's middle son, entered in a horse show jumping contest. As Isaac grows up, and Mark's worry for him also grows, Isaac is finally allowed to have a friend visit the posh manor house. His best pal from school, Byron Arness, and he, work on a science fair project for the last week of school before the summer break.

Meanwhile, LAPD homicide detective lieutenant, Jeff Chandler, gets a call for a suspicious death. It seems Fred Prescott, an actor in a long-running soap opera, is found dead. As Jeff begins to uncover facts, he has a good idea who has committed the crime... Zena Scheer, his costar and new wife.

Mark's actor son, Alexander Mark Richfield, finds he has a new love interest on his new cable TV drama Room at the Top. To his surprise, and dread, Gabe Loveday, Angel Loveday's grandson, and Oliver Loveday's son, (one of Alex's ex-boyfriends from UCLA) is cast to play Alex's romantic interest. Needless to say, this doesn't make Alex happy. And, of course, it happens just when he and his husband, Lt Billy Sharpe are doing great.

Gathering of Men; Book 84

In episode 84 of the Action! Series we find the men of Los Angeles visiting the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield at his estate in Paradise California for Father's Day weekend. As the family and friends gather at the manor house to enjoy its many amenities and sumptuous meals, Hollywood actors, Keith O'Leary and Carl Bronson invite their new young sexy chef, nineteen-year-old Erin 'Coco' Cochran. Coco is pleased to help Mark's chef, Sierra, prepare dinners for the 30 guests, but Keith and Carl have other ideas!

Meanwhile, former lifeguard turned video-channel sensation, Josh Elliot, not only gets the men to play naughty games, he lures both Dangereux models, Mark Antonious and Frenchman Henre Ward, into a bubble bathtub interview with him, together!

As the sportsmanship, horseback riding, and luxurious spa entertains the guests, the sexy vibe of handsome men create a sensuous weekend for the couples. And Milt Richfield's spirit is up to his old tricks!

Forbidden Fruit; Book 85

In episode 85 of the Action! Series, we catch up with the men of Paradise and LA after their wonderful weekend for Father's Day.

As the men get back into the groove for their work weeks, Hollywood superstar Alexander Mark Richfield continues shooting his scenes for his new cable TV series, Room at the Top. The writers have the love scenes between him and Gabe Loveday, Alex's old boyfriend's son, heating up!

Meanwhile, Tadzio Andresen, a Swedish transgender actress, toils between her film role as a judge, and her new TV show, starring with Alexander, hustling between movie sets to get it all done. Not only is Tadzio under pressure to memorize lines from both projects, but someone also suddenly begins trolling her online, making her miserable.

And more surprises await fans of the series, as a taboo act occurs between married men. Forbidden fruit. Why is the temptation to take a bite so overwhelming? Because it's designed that way.

Daddy's Little Girl; Book 86

In episode 86 of the Action! Series we find the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield at his estate in Paradise California. This weekend he is expecting a visit from his six-year-old daughter, Lily Hayden. Lily lives with her father, Stan Bergman in New York. Mark's ex-husband, Stan, remarried. Bryan Fuller, a Broadway producer, and his two adopted children, come with Stan, staying at the estate's annex for the weekend.

Also visiting for the weekend, is Henre Ward, and Sharon Tice, Mark's youngest son, Jacob's mother and her new French actor husband. Mark's eldest son, Alexander, and his LAPD lieutenant husband are also on the guest list.

As the tension mounts between Mark and Stan and Lily's possible preference to remain with her Daddy Mark at the posh manor house in Paradise, Milt, Mark's deceased father, is up to his old tricks again.

In the middle of the night, two of the men staying at the manor meet for a rendezvous.

Naughty, naughty...

A Haunting in Paradise; Book 87

Get ready for a terrifying Halloween ride!

The Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, entertains thirty guests at the manor house. While the adult gay men enjoy games of their own, Mark hosts a party for his two young boys, Jacob Bentley Richfield, and Isaac Milton Richfield. Eleven of their classmates visit the manor for a fun-filled afternoon.

Unknown to the guests sleeping in the mansion, as well as Mark, and his husband Steve Miller, Steve's teenage niece Chloe, and Mark's former fiancée, Sharon Tice's daughters, Chelsea and Elizabeth Ann, use a spirit board to call the dead master of the house to come for a visit.

Mark's deceased father, Milt Richfield, stirs up demons, making for a nightmarish horror-filled weekend. During the day, the home is filled with love, laughter, and light, but at night, in the dark... things take a turn for the worse.

Each guest has nightmares that emerge from their darkest fears.

Boo! Enjoy this wicked, scary haunting for your Halloween fun!

Is It Really Xmas Again?; Book 88

In episode 88 of the Action! Series we find Mark Antonious Richfield, the Nation's Top Male Model, in Los Angeles for a Dangereux Cologne shoot with the scrumptious Frenchman, Henre Ward.

Since Mark is in Southern California for his work, he and his husband, Steve Miller, decide to spend the Christmas weekend with their sons, friends, and family in LA, instead of having a huge bash at their estate in Paradise California.

While the men in Mark's world meet up with old acquaintances and spend time with family, we reunite with some familiar faces from episodes past.

Not only do the boys from LA get to enjoy their loved ones, but a few of the couples decide to play naughty together this holiday weekend!

As the group reflects on the year gone by, in awe at how quickly time is passing, they renew old friendships and find new ones on this journey we call... life.

Out With the Old, In With the New; Book 89

In episode 89 of the Action! Series, we continue right where Book 88 left off, in Los Angeles. While Steve Miller, Jack Larsen, Blake Hughes, Hunter Rasmusen, and Adam Lewis return to the estate in Paradise, California, the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Antonious Richfield, stays behind.

Mark's two young sons, Isaac Milton Richfield and Jacob Bentley Richfield, spend time with their young actor father, Stan Bergman and their sister, Lily Hayden Bergman, and Stan's husband Bryan Fuller, and his two children, Viola and Hal in their Sherman Oaks home.

Mark's decision to be close to the boys while they stay in Los Angeles, upsets his husband, Steve. As Steve returns to work with Jack at Richfield-Miller International in Sacramento, he resents Mark staying behind, leaving running the huge garment manufacturing firm to him in Mark's absence.

The irritation in Steve triggers a need for alcohol, which the former cop needs to avoid.

Meanwhile, Mark's middle son, Isaac, craves the limelight, desperately wanting to become an actor or model, like his glamorous dad or superstar brother, Alexander Mark Richfield.

Winning Ticket; Book 90

In episode 90 of the Action! Series, we find transgender actress Tadzio Andresen up for an award. But, since Tadzio is a transgender woman, controversy and protests erupt outside the event.

Mark Antonious Richfield once more flies to LA alone from his estate in Paradise, to attend the event and support Tadzio, with his actor son, Alexander, and Alex's husband, LAPD LT Billy Sharpe.

While Mark is there, he attempts to matchmake a new friend Chris McCarthy with actors Carl Bronson and Keith O'Leary's chef, Erin 'Coco' Cochran. Needless to say, Chris has a one-track mind... and it's on the Nation's Top Male Model, Mark Richfield.

Mark's ten-year-old son, Isaac Milton Richfield, gets his first starring role in a school play, which pleases his two daddies, but not some of their peers.

Meanwhile, Mark's former fiancée, Sharon Tice-Ward, gives birth to her new son, Beau Alain. Her second husband, Frenchman Henre Ward, is by her side, although... Henre cannot seem to forget his secret affair with the macho police lieutenant, Billy Sharpe.

Room at the Top; Book 91

In episode 91 of the Action! Series, superstar actor, Alexander Mark Richfield, find out his director Charlotte Deavers, is up to her old tricks again. Alex is the headlining star of a new pay channel TV series, Room at the Top, where he plays a lawyer. When Ms Deavers sees Alex admiring their hunky soundman, Dirk Jackman, the ambitious woman immediately lures Dirk into a role in front of the camera, making him an offer he cannot refuse.

As Alexander's romances in the show begin to heat up, and he and Dirk have nude scenes in bed, they find their attraction to each other hard to hide.

Meanwhile, Alex's LAPD lieutenant husband, Billy Sharpe, is unaware of the changes in Alex's script, and when he finds out, he isn't happy.

And not only is Charlotte and the TV show's producers Will Markham and Derek Dixon amping up the show's sexual content, but they're also pushing Adam Lewis, a talent agent, to bring Stan Bergman, Alex's father's ex-husband onto the show!

In a world where ratings are king, these TV producers want award nominations for their work. And they'll stop at nothing to get them.

Talking Tonight with Carl Bronson; Book 92

In episode 92 of the Action! Series, we continue where book 91 left off, at the estate in Paradise, California. While the men continue to enjoy the pools, sporting events, horses, and gourmet food, late-night talk show host Carl Bronson looks forward to Monday when Tadzio Andresen, a transgender actress who just won an academy award, making history, will be on his show.

Meanwhile, Mark Antonious Richfield hosts a huge gathering at his manor house, including Iris Johansen, his eldest son Alex's mother. Iris' first trip to the huge home is an experience she'll never forget.

As the men pair up for sexual fun, more clandestine trysts occur, and Mark's ex-husband, Stan Bergman, make a career decision that may change his future. His agent, Adam Lewis, recommended he take a part in Alexander Richfield's TV show. Who knows that that will lead to?

Love, sex, infidelity, and passion await you!
